

Jeffery Hale
Saint Brigid's

The Saint-Brigid's Home is looking for volunteers that are willing to help decorate the Home for the different seasons/celebrations. We believe that decorating is an essential part of making Saint Brigid's a Home, but with the growing number of activities that we offer we do not have the time to decorate as much as we would like to. This opportunity is perfect for volunteers who cannot commit to a fixed schedule, as it can be done when it best suits you. If this opportunity interest you, please contact Myriam Gaudreault the Volunteer Support Agent at Saint Brigid's Home (info at the bottom).

Here is a detailed job description:

Decoration Volunteer

Role: As a decoration volunteer, your role is to decorate the home according to the different events/seasons using the existing decorations and/or new ones.

Specific Tasks: You will be asked to come decorate depending on the event/season. This job does not follow a set schedule. You must decorate the Kildare Lounge, cafeteria, and the common areas on the floors with appropriate decorations. You are encouraged to create decorations yourself. The Community Life Animator might ask you to go shopping for new decorations with a certain budget.

Skills Needed: Volunteers need to be responsible, helpful, and creative. Volunteers must respect instructions given to them by the Community Life Animator and/or staff members on the floors. Volunteers must also have had the appropriate training modules this activity.

Volunteer Responsibilities: You are expected to be reliable, organized, and resourceful. You are expected to do the tasks assigned to you.

We hope to have sparked your interest!
